American Red Cross New Disaster Volunteer Training Class

The American Red Cross of Northeast Massachusetts will hold an Introduction to Disaster Services Training and Information Session on Thursday, September 13, 2007 from 6-9 p.m. at 100 Cummings Center, Room 210E in Beverly. Our mission is to enable volunteers to translate their care and compassion for the community into action and provide information to other community agencies on Red Cross work. The training will include information on being trained as a volunteer to assist in local disasters as well as information for volunteers interested in being deployed to help on national disasters. Interested people are urged to attend now to be trained to help during hurricanes, winter storms, floods and fires.

To register for the class, Call 978-922-2224 or e-mail cvose@northeastmassredcross.org.

All Disaster training is free and is open to those 16 or older. The Red Cross provides relief to the victims of disasters and helps people prevent, prepare for, and respond to emergencies. The American Red Cross of Northeast Massachusetts serves Amesbury, Beverly, Byfield, Essex, Gloucester, Hamilton, Ipswich, Manchester, Newbury, Newburyport, Rockport, Rowley, Salisbury, Wenham, and West Newbury.
